

Steps to Becoming a Referee

1. Sign up as a volunteer at www.eayso.org
2. Bring 2 copies of the completed volunteer form and valid ID to a clinic or registration.

How to Register for a Course

1. Register for your chosen course: www.eayso.org
2. Pass the Basic Referee exam with a minimum score of 75%.
3. Any Questions contact Alberto Mendez (Referee Instructor): refinstructor@ace65.org

The Region is offering the following courses -- you must attend one course in all entirety. We will provide a meal and drinks each session. (Dates and location subject to change, please verify all information at www.ace65.org.)

#1:	February 25 (Sat)	7:45 AM-5:00 PM	Loc:	Sweeten Hall
#2:	March 6 (Tues)	6:30-9:30 PM	Loc:	ALJHS-Choral Room

Common Questions

Q: What if I forget to pre-register for a course?

A: No problem, just show up at least 15 minutes prior to the start of any of the courses.

Q: What should I bring to the course?

A: Bring your volunteer forms and legal ID. Also, you'll need paper and a pen/pencil for taking notes. We'll provide you with several publications.

Q: Are there any publications I can look at prior to attending a course?

A: Yes, you may look at the any of the following:

Rules: www.fifa.com/worldfootball/lawsofthegame.html

Offside: www.fifa.com/flash/lotq/football/en/flash/start.html

AYSO Guidance:

http://www.aysohelp.org/resources/referee_res/soccer_governing_rules.aspx

*On-Line Companion Course.

Must take and pass on-line Basic Referee Course (<http://www.aysotraining.org>)